

2017 Diocesan Cycle of Prayer

January through March 2017

January 1	As we begin this new year we give thanks for the leadership and ministry of our Presiding Bishop, the Most Rev. Michael Curry and his wife, Sharon.
January 8	We give thanks for our Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Santosh K. Marray, and his wife, Lynn.
January 15	We give thanks for the witness of God's people at St. Paul's, Berlin, and for the Rev. Michael Moyer and his son, Sasha.
January 22	We give thanks for the witness of God's people at Christ Church, Cambridge, and for the Rev. Robert White and his wife, Louise.
January 29	We give thanks for the witness of God's people at St. Paul's, Centreville, and for the Rev. Mary Garner, and her daughters Maddie and Adele.
February 5	We give thanks for the witness of God's people at Emmanuel Church, Chestertown, and for the Rev. Darcy Williams and her husband, Joseph.
February 12	We give thanks for the witness of God's people at St. Stephen's Church, Earleville, and for the Rev. Nicholas Sichangi and his wife.
February 19	We give thanks for the witness of clergy and lay people who will gather this coming weekend in Cambridge for the annual Convention of the Diocese of Easton, and we pray God will bless their learning and deliberations.
February 26	We give thanks for the witness of God's people at Old Trinity, Church Creek, and for the Rev. Daniel Dunlap and his wife, Donna, and son, Gareth.
March 5	We give thanks for our Bishops resigned: the Rt. Rev. Martin Townsend, and his wife, Barbara, and the Rt. Rev. James Shand, and his wife, Lynne. May their continuing ministry be a time of rest and joy.
March 12	We give thanks for the witness of God's people at Christ Church, Denton, and for the Rev. Blake Wamester, and his wife, Karen.
March 19	We give thanks for the witness of God's people at Augustine Parish, Chesapeake City, and for the Rev. James Wolford.
March 26	We give thanks for the witness of God's people at Trinity Cathedral, Easton, and for the Very Rev. Gregory Powell and his children Charissa, Michael, Jonathan, and Anna.